

Abi Lyle

Irish International
Dressage Rider

About

Based in England, Abi is a warm and friendly, gifted clinician who excels at working with horses and riders of all ages and abilities. She particularly enjoys working with those who need a boost of confidence.

Abi has numerous international competitions under her belt including the World Young Horse Championships. She represented Ireland at the 2022 World Dressage Championships and is considered a prospect for Team Ireland at the Paris 2024 Olympics.

Abi is a compassionate and enthusiastic coach. She specialises in test riding, position work and has all kinds of exercises up her sleeve to improve your horse's way of going. She also has a phenomenal wealth of knowledge on rider fitness. She produces her own horses from youngsters up to Grand Prix and has trained with Carl Hester for over a decade.
