Special Instructions

READ ME

1. Friday: Show office opens at noon. Schooling starts thereafter. Please check in at the office before riding.
2. At check-in, each rider receives a BINGO card. Complete your BINGO to collect your swag bucket in the office at any point during the show weekend. You will complete your BINGO by talking to other competitors to write down their name in the block that has their unique fact.
3. Saturday morning, before the first ride: the Dressage Judge will be in the show barn to share donuts and encouraging words. Time TBD. Plan to be early.
4. All dressage rides (both Dressage Only and CT dressage) are ridden on Saturday. All jumping takes place on Sunday.
5. After every dressage ride, the rider is asked to approach the judge's box/table. Trainers and parents are welcome and may film. The judge will provide immediate, constructive feedback.
6. The jump course designers will host a course walk-through Saturday, before the competitor party.
7. The competitor party is Saturday night at the competitor barn and will have dinner. Raffle prizes and Dressage HighPoint prizes will be awarded. Don't miss it! Please take the opportunity to meet the host, Lauren Griffin-Kramer and her crew from Zen Dressage. We are very grateful for this generous gift to host the event. They have claimed the title as the MOST FUN barn in SEDA.
8. CT classes are pinned with a victory gallop. If a horse doesn't care for the victory gallop, riders may attend on foot (or with a stick horse).
9. Money Jump class competitors ride their CT jump round first (if in a CT), then return for the money class round after all competitors at their level have finished (do not leave the area). Optimum time wins, but that time is unknown to riders. The pot will be split between the top 6 riders at the show closest to Optimum Time. All money collected for the Money Jump class entries goes directly into the pot for winning! Riders do not have to be in a CT or Dressage Only classes in order to compete in the Money Jump Class. All are welcome!!
10. Riders are HIGHLY encouraged to get a stall and stay all weekend. This is an opportunity to meet other Junior riders, learn from each other, and is NOT just a show. Parents- also take the opportunity to make friends with other horse parents. It takes a village to raise a horse kid!
11. Volunteers are cooking food for us so please plan to eat lunch both days on the show grounds but PLEASE let us know how many plates to expect so we make sure to have enough for everyone but also not over buy. We promise it will be delicious!
12. Have fun! Make a friend!
